TAKOMA CARS UNCHANGED LYLES WINS POINT IN FREEDOM FIGHT

Man Girl Accused Granted Writ Ordering Police to Produce Him in Court.

Marshall Lyles, who is charged ith white slavery in connection with the disappearance last Sunday of afherine Rosenbaum, thirteen years old of 1235 Maryland avenue northeast, today obtained writ of habeat corpus ordering the police to produce him in court. Lyles had furnished a bond of $5,000, but the police declined to release him because of other charges which may be broughthere and because he is said to be wanted on a non-brilable charge in Maryland in connection with the alleged attack on the girl in that state. Assistan' United States Attorned O'Leary appeared before Justice Stafford, to whom the application of Lyles was presented, and opposed his release, pointing out that the petition did not set forth a case calling for the issuance of this unusual writ. The court denied the application for the release of Lyles, but stated that if counsel could amend the petition he might again present the application.

On the presentation of the amended. old of 1235 Maryland avenue north-

On the presentation of the amended petition by Attorney Miller, Justice Stafford directed the issuance of the writ, which requires the police to bring Lyles before the court this afternoon. The court told Assistant United States Attorney O'Leavy that he might set forth his objection to a bail warrant, when he filed the return for the police authorities, setting forth their reasons for the retention.

Lyles, on being questioned last night by the police at the ninth precinct denied having assaulted the Rosen-
